South Africa: Eskom Investment Support Project

Dear CTF Trust Fund Committee Member,

We are writing to inform you that, at the request of the Government of South Africa, the World Bank is temporarily withdrawing the South Africa: Eskom Investment Support Project that was submitted to the CTF Trust Fund Committee on February 12 for approval of a CTF allocation of $250 million. The Government of South Africa and the World Bank have advised that they have taken note of the requests for clarification and comments from Trust Fund Committee Members, and appreciate their supportive statements. A revised document will be prepared for circulation to the Committee at a later time.

Responses to questions received from Committee Members on the original document will be provided next week.

Best regards,
