Introduction & Rationale

- Kenya is one of the former six Pilot Countries selected to SREP.
- Kenya’s Investment Plan (IP) in line with national renewable energy development strategy and Vision 2030
- GoK undertaking a major expansion of energy access to support planned higher levels of economic growth while reducing the impact of the energy sector on climate change.
- Programmatic approach to long-term transformation of Kenya’s power system being undertaken through use of renewable energy, resulting in reduced GHG.
- IP focuses on investments and capacity-building likely to catalyze additional financing and attract private sector investment
- SREP supports GoK programmes through innovative business models to finance high-risk high-reward projects

Successes and Challenges

Successes
- Rapid assembly of competent task force
- Selection of 3 priority projects with highest transformation impact
- Support from key stakeholders
- Constructive feedback from peers & MDB
- Videocon approval
- Development of project implementation plans

Challenges
- Selection of task force members
- Agreement on shortlist
- Accommodating and resolving divergent views
- Protracted process - repeat queries, onerous demands, insensitive questions

Issues
- Non representation of Private sector
- Interest groups fronting specific projects/technologies
- Agreement on IP development process
- Poor understanding of country perspective
- Different approval schedules by multiple MDBs on same projects
